NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. In order to meet the increased demand for it it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Postum.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, interest, and worth, with its high quality that has kept pace with it it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable confidence. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil during the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
